

Summary of 20 Daily Nawals of Wisdom*

On the first day, Wisdom Energy emerges and through Nawal Batz'. This presence is weaved into the fabric of everything. Everything that exists within the outer five-sensory world holds within it the wisdom energy of the possible. As we perceive the threads that exist in cloth, this gives shape and form to the material. As we perceive the veins within the body, this gives the form and shape to the flow of the circulatory system, which carries the presence of the life force of the Wisdom Energy. Your threads, regardless of our veins, the cloth, or the fabric within everything physical, are what carry the soul energy through all of life. This forms the foundation of the interconnectivity of the heart behind everything. The beginning of a new cycle that supports purpose or destiny. Embodied within these first threads is weaved with the foundation of wisdom. These are the Threads that hold the energy for the form and shape of what is possible. The energy behind the forces of the Heart of Sky will begin the dreaming of the threads of your intention.

On the second day, this Wisdom Energy through Nawal Beey dreams the path or the road of wisdom into anything, into everything that will someday be manifested. The soul of the planet is always dreaming the possible paths or roads for all things visible and non-visible to manifest. The nervous system of the body establishes this path or road for this wisdom energy to be brought through our physical body. The white path or the white road is formed and shaped according to one's inner destiny. One's nervous system is formed to carry this wisdom energy throughout your body. The Heart of Sky dreams our vision and our ability to complete this road or journey of our spiritual life with great success.

On the third day, the wisdom energy is being dreamed through Nawal Aaj into the flow of the interconnectivity of the heart that exists behind all things. Through this, the path of the unbroken chain of the pattern that connects, Nawal Aaj will always succeed over all things that will manifest. Wisdom Energy always flows through the path of interconnectivity. This path will always triumph over any and all challenges. This path flows between all forms of Nature. Creating the foundation or altar for the flow of wisdom energy behind everything. The dreaming presence of the Heart of Sky weaves together the form and shape for success to always emerge.

On the fourth day, the energy of wisdom begins the Dreaming into the emergence of the Heart of the Earth. Nawal I'x brings the uniqueness of this flow into new forms and new shapes that are manifesting all around us. This is the living presence of the Heart of the soul of the Earth! Nawal I'x, as the creative force of the Universe, your Wisdom Energy guides the dream of the heart behind interconnectivity to manifest behind all five-sensory life. Weave my mind and my heart into the heart behind the all of the organic elements of the earth. Your presence is deeply weaved into the very life force of everything that grows from the earth. Transform my mind into ability to perceive and think about all things possible.

On the fifth day, Nawal Tz'ikin always delivers the energy of the new wisdom of all possibility into our hearts and minds. This is the inner voice that is quiet and subtle. Found in our inner realms, two degrees to the right of focus. This gives us the ability to always access energy for a vision that holds the wisdom of the possible. Wisdom energy combines the Power of the Bird Weaving Together Heart of Sky and Heart of Earth.

On the sixth day, Nawal Ajma'k, carries the first light of the new dawning. First light will always emerge from any darkness. Regardless if the darkness is self-imposed through any challenge or any illness, the power of transmutation will emerge. Regardless if the darkness follows the natural cycles of ending and beginnings, the power of transmutation will emerge. Regardless of the darkness source of origins, the mystery behind the power of transmutation will emerge and new light will always be present. The presence of wisdom energy allows the reconciliation and the transmutation of any and all challenges into the emergence of new beginnings and possibilities.

On the seventh day, Nawal Na'ooj, Wisdom lives! Wisdom is fully formed and shaped in the subtle worlds. Wisdom is flowing through the cords of the connection. Wisdom is flowing through the interconnectivity of the heart behind all five-sensory objects and events. Wisdom is being readied to transmute anything and everything that is alive in the physical world for all of time! Wisdom energy belongs to the Nawals. All experiences, all challenges, all history, all awareness can be transformed through Nawal Na'ooj into wisdom energy. This allows you to perceive, take action and communicate from the presence of the great grandmother. The energy from Nawal Na'ooj transforms one's body, mind, emotion, spirit, and brain. It will transmute and transform all knowledge and experiences to the flow of Wisdom Energy and the new possibility.

On the eight day, Nawal Tijaax, the energy of Transmutation is established on the earth. This energy will dissolve and cut through all challenges, suffering, and pain. Regardless of its source of origins, the ability to transmute all pain, suffering, and all forms of challenges will prevail. Regardless of how great the challenge may initially be perceived transmutations will prevail. Transmutation is the new wisdom energy that flows behind the heart of the possible. This is the foundation behind all forms of healing! Wisdom energy cuts out and separates all challenges regardless of its source of origins. Then the energy behind good medicine can restore and heal anything into its new form and shape of what is possible.

On the ninth day, Nawal Kawoq', the voice of the Great Grandmother is weaved behind every voice. The voice of the Great Grandmother is always available and present behind every word. The voice of the Great Grandmother is always available and present behind what is spoken inwardly about self and others. The voice of the Great Grandmother is always available and present behind every word that is spoken outwardly about self and others. The voice of the Great Grandmother is one form of transmutation that is always present and possible. Wisdom Energy flows through the voice of the Great Grandmother. This unifies the forces for abundance to emerge behind everything one petitions in life. Without the voice of the Great Grandmother, no true abundance can ever be present.

On the tenth day, Nawal Ajpuub', will sweep away all challenges, all suffering, all disruptive energies, and any and all pain. This solar light radiates and grows what is possible. For only this Wisdom Energy can prevail. Nawal Ajpuub' ability to sweep away all challenges, is another form of Transmutation that is always present and possible. The presence of Wisdom Energy that flows from the Sun and the Moon and the light from the Stars, the Milky Way, will break open and sweep away any and all challenges. This allows the pure wisdom of the heart behind everything to emerge and shine.

On the eleventh day, Nawal Imo'x, weaves together the subtle forces of the Wisdom Energy within my Mind and my brain. Weave together the subtle forces of Wisdom within the flow of the interconnectivity that is behind all forms of nature that flows from the Primordial Waters of Emergence. Weave together these subtle forces of Wisdom Energy behind all the systems and organs within my body. The ability of asking Nawal Imo'x to weave together these subtle forces of Wisdom Energy that flows from the heart behind everything is another form of Transmutation that is always present and possible. From the primordial water of all that is possible wisdom energy emerges. This reflects the energies for strength and change. This presence transforms my brain and mind into the flow of interconnectivity of the heart behind all of nature.

On the twelfth day, Nawal Q'iiq', is the presence of the Heart of the Wind which carries the Breath of life. I ask Nawal Q'iiq' to breathe the Breath of life through all forms of the wisdom energy of the possibilities inside of me. This is the presence of the yellow candle, Xikmeel Martin winds of the south. I ask Nawal Q'iiq' to breathe the Breath of life through all forms of challenges outside of me. This is the presence of the white candle, Q'iiq' Martin wind of the North Wind. The ability of asking Nawal Q'iiq' to breathe the subtle forces of Wisdom from within and outside of me is another form of Transmutation, Transformation, and the Emergence of the possible that is always present within and outside of me. The flow of Wisdom Energy of all possibilities is weaved into the Wind Nawal Q'iiq'. This is the living form of the Divine Breath that awakens all forms of change within all forms of Nature. This is the motivating energy for action that flows behind the voice of the Great Grandmother.

On, Nawal Aq'abal, the thirteen day, allows this new emerging light of the new Dawning, to emerge into a new form and into a new shape. The forces of the new wisdom of the possible direct the foundation of this new emergence. The Nawals, Marias, and the Martins weave together this new wisdom, peace, love, new ideas, and happiness. Today is when the energies for renewal, rejuvenation, and the self-organizing energies prevail. This allows the emergence of the new form and the new shape to emerge into the outer five-sensory world. With each new dawning, we always begin on the path of good medicine. On this path any and all possibilities are present. These are the motivating energies of the heart behind wisdom. These are the attributes that merge through what we call love. Ask to receive these blessings and grow the new wisdom energy of the possible.

On the fourteen day, Nawal K'at, as the net that holds everything within the inner and outer web of life. This flow of the new Wisdom Energy emerges through the fire at the mystery at the center. This establishes the flow of the Wisdom Energy of the interconnectivity of the heart behind all things. This emerges as form and shape of the flow of the Wisdom Energy behind everything in the outer world. Through this mystery behind the fire, Nawal K'at dissolves anything that is not part of this flow of the interconnectivity of the heart behind all things. For this flow of energy through Nawal K'at is another form of Transmutation.

Whatever patterns we hold that is trapped within our net is within our full awareness today. Today's flow of the wisdom energy of the possible can easily release whatever patterns are tangled and bound within our awareness. This releases the flow of the heart behind everything so the interconnectivity through all of Nature prevails and guides us within every aspect of our life.

On the fifteen day, Nawal Kaan, the emergence of the vision serpent accelerates and intensifies the energy of the Heart of the World Soul behind everything. Through this growing flow of energy of Nawal Kaan, one's ability to use Wisdom Energy is strengthened. One's Wisdom, one's inner knowing or inner intelligence becomes stronger. This allows more energy to be available for healing, creativity, and a manifestation of one focus becomes stronger. Through this presence of Nawal Kaan one is able to perceive easily the seductions and illusion that are behind our challenges. Focusing this growing, accelerating Wisdom Energy will bring forth your ability to transmute and transform your heart's desire more easily and quickly. For this flow of energy through Nawal Kaan is the foundational form for Transmutation. Through Nawal Kaan, the flow of wisdom energy for the possible is deepened. This energy is one of the most empowering energy that will strengthen all other energies of blessings. To experience the energy of Nawal Kaan is a true blessing. This force will add it strength to the power of transmutation so what emerges is a true wisdom and at its core emerges an inner peace.

On the sixteen day, Nawal Kamik, completes the cycle of endings and beginnings. The doorway, the portal between the outer five-sensory world and the heart of the Universe, the subtle world of Paq'alib'al, is open for all of time. The flow of the Wisdom Energy is always available. Wisdom Energy is behind all darkness and its light from the moon and stars will always transform into the new dawning of solar light of the sun. Nawal Kamik will transmute and transform everything into one's unique Wisdom Energy to support all of life! The energy behind Nawal Kame keeps the doorway open between the unseen and seen worlds. This flow of wisdom energy is available for all of time. This force allows the communications between guardians, mediators, angels, ancestral, and other forces to always be available. This allows the Voice of the Grandmother to always be available. The most difficult of challenges are transmuted and transformed into the flow of the new wisdom energy of emergence.

On the seventeen day, Nawal Keej, supports one to live on the path or the road of interconnectivity. Through interconnectivity, the heart behind everything and anything that exists in the outer five-sensory world flows together to supports all forms of physical manifestation. The ability to live from the Wisdom Energy is available behind all forms of life, all forms of nature. For everything and anything that has manifested in the outer five-sensor world holds the Wisdom Energy. Through Nawal Keej, ask it to center you into the four corners of the Universe. This allows you to be centered within the flow of the heart of the Universe, the heart of Paq'alib'al. You are centered into the mystery of the fire, into the growing tree of life. Nawal Keej allows my intention to focus and change my destiny. Assist me into alignment with the forces that has been bundled around my birth. Wisdom Energy is the ultimate authority behind all things. Wisdom Energy is behind all forms of leadership. Wisdom Energy is the voice of the Great Grandmother. Wisdom Energy is perceived and spoken through this Voice. Nawal Keej initiate me into being an Ajkuun, or a ritual communicator.

On the eighteen day, Nawal Q'aniil, the light or fire behind the emergence of all new forms. Everything is alive in the Universe. Everything is alive in Paq'alib'al. You are the energy that ignites the birth of the wisdom Energy into the outer physical world. Nawal Q'aniil ignites the sprouting of the uniqueness behind all seeds, behind all ideas, and behind all projects to grow. This energy is the yeast or the catalysts for everything and anything to sprout and grow. Nawal Q'aniil ignites the seed that is weaved behind everything. This is the seed of the wisdom energy of all possibilities. This seed sprouts the flow of the wisdom energy for the possible. Ask Nawal Q'aniil to ignite this seed of the wisdom energy of the possible behind whatever challenge or focus of your intention. That your focus upon healing, creativity, and manifestation will always succeed. This wisdom energy emerges within its own natural timing.

On the nineteen day, Nawal Toj, we receive the blessing of the Wisdom energy from the Sun, the red candle. This Wisdom energy emerges through the warmth and carrying of the living fire that is growing at the mystery of the center. This awakens within us all that is possible. This awakens within us our new path or road for our life. Nawal Toj, the light that emerges from your fire strengthens the flow of our wisdom energy.

Your light comes from the heart of the sun. Your light comes from the Ceremonial Fire. Your light comes from the candle. Through the fire of your light you support all forms of healing, all forms of creativity, and any and all forms of manifestation. Your fire, your light is the living nature of the Ajaf, the One Source living on the earth. Your fire, your light weaves together the flow of the interconnectivity of the heart behind all forms of Nature to the flow of the One.

On the twentieth day, Nawal Tz'e', is the ultimate authority, the guardian behind all spiritual and material law. By speaking from only the voice of the Great Grandmother, the wisdom of what is possible behind any and all challenges emerges. For Nawal Tz'e' carries the energy to break Humans away from all suffering, from all forms of challenges that are come into the awareness of one's life. As the guardian of wisdom energy, the Truth of what is possible will always prevail. The presence of Nawal Tz'e' is to connect you to the wisdom energy behind all words. Through this voice of the great grandmother, your wisdom is the authority of the larger truth that is felt behind all your senses. Through this presence of Nawal Tz'e', one has the responsibility and the authority to perceive and present what the wisdom energy of the possible is needed at that moment. Through the voice of the great Grandmother, one is responsible to choose the motivating energy of the heart and the path of good medicine. This exists behind our abilities to listen, to speak, to touch, to move, to create, and to express whatever is being held within this flow of wisdom energy.

I petition the Dreaming Presence from the Heart of the Soul of the World, to weave me into a partnership with this presence of the new Wisdom Energy. Allow my partnership to flow and grow through this new Wisdom Energy of the possible. I ask today's Nawal and the Ajaf, Nawal Skirmeent, for the blessings of the new wisdom throughout everything I do today. I ask the energy from the force of Fierceness, to have the courage to face the personal and collective challenges that have I have bound and tied up in my life. Teach me to face these challenges through the motivating energies of the heart, the energies of love, kindness, compassion, caring, gentleness, to assist me to face anything and everything from this flow of love. I ask to live a long life on the path of good medicine, and for more strength through the wisdom energy from the Nawals. Be present and teach me so I can do the work of my purpose and allow the emergence of meaning to be present behind everything I do throughout the day. Allow me to have a felt-sense of knowing that these new ideas are flowing through the fabric of everything that exists within my inner and outer five-sensory physical world. Teach me to live the path of good medicine where wisdom, peace, love, gentleness, kindness, new ideas, and happiness are all weaved together by the Nawals. May Wisdom Energy Live through all that I Express throughout my Life!

*© All of the material in this blog in all forms, written, audio, video, pictures, etc. are under the Copyright © 2018 by Conrad and Ilene Satala Seminars LLC, Fort Wayne, Indiana USA. All rights Reserved.